

Rosabella

(D7)////(G)////(A7)////(D) /

(D) One Monday morning in the (A) month of May, One Monday (A7) morning in the (D) month of May
I (D7) thought I heard the (G) old man say, The (D) Rosa-(A7)-bella will (D) sail today

CHORUS

And we're (D) going on board the Rosa-(A7)-bella, we're going on board the Rosa-(D)-bella
We're (D7) going on board, right (G) down to board, the (D) saucy (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

(D) Farewell ye ladies of (A) London Town, Farewell ye ladies of (D) London Town
We (D7) hate to leave but we're (G) going down, to (D) board the (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

(D) She's a deep water ship with a (A) deep water crew, She's a (A7) deep water ship with a (D) deep water crew
She could (D7) hug the shore but (G) damned if we do a-(D)-board the (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

CHORUS

And we're (D) going on board the Rosa-(A7)-bella, we're going on board the Rosa-(D)-bella
We're (D7) going on board, right (G) down to board, the (D) saucy (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

(D) Around Cape Horn where the (A) dolphins play, Around Cape Horn Where the (D) dolphins play
(D7) Around Cape Horn is a (G) bloody long way, a-(D)-board the (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

(D) Nancy brought whisky for (A) all the crew, Nancy brought whisky for (D) all the crew
She (D7) wanted to see which (G) man would do a-(D)-board the (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

And we're (D) going on board the Rosa-(A7)-bella, we're going on board the Rosa-(D)-bella
We're (D7) going on board, right (G) down to board, the (D) saucy (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

And we're (D) going on board the Rosa-(A7)-bella, we're going on board the Rosa-(D)-bella
We're (D7) going on board, right (G) down to board, the (D) saucy (A7) Rosa-(D)-bella.

(A7/D to finish)
